SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.-Danger from fire is practically at an end. The blaze north of the Market street ferryhouse is under control. To the south the fire has burned itself out at Lombard street. The people are cheerful, provisions, tents and money are pouring in and the most interesting news to the people of the East probably concerns their friends may be safely stated that all the New Yorkers and other visitors from the East who were in San Francisco Wednesday morning escaped death or serious injury. Investigation since the excitement has died down shows that the loss of life was almost entirely confined to the lodg-

TRAINS BEGINNING TO RUN.

The Southern Pacific Company succeeded in getting the first train fellow, with big black eyes and curly black hair. He wore short dresses through on the Const Division last night. It ran into the depot at the corner of Third and Townsend streets. Trains are now running with comand elevated parative regularity. An inspection of the line shows a number of water tanks, railway depots and freight houses have been destroyed, but this does not seriously interfere with traffic. A bridge over the Pajora River. led to Santa Cruz branch, and a bridge on the Monterey branch are so out of line that it is impossible to get trains over these branches,

The people of Berkeley have sent word that they can care for 6,000 refugees. Alameda will take care of 3,000, Fresno of 3,000 and Richmond of 500. The Southern Pacific will carry victims of the disaster free as far as Portland, Orc., on the north, and El Paso, Tex., on the south. The Santa Fe will carry sufferers free to any point on its system in California. The city was practically under martial law all night. Citizens passing from one block to another were challenged. Mayor Schmitz has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to keep within the limits of their own homes after dark. Lighting fires in stoves is forbidden until every chimney left standing in the city has been inspected.

STRICKEN CITY IS VERY ORDERLY.

The prompt killing of thieves has discouraged them and there is surprisingly little disorder. So far as can be ascertained there was not a shot fired all night long.

Thousands, in the conviction that the fire is under control and immemediate danger is over, slept for the first time since the disaster Wednes-

Bankers are preparing to resume business Monday morning. The United States Mint is in a position to transact business right now.

The records in the Hall of Records have been found to be intact and there will be no tangle of titles to real estate as a result of the disaster.

Temporary post-offices will be in working order by Monday, and that Postal and Western Union companies are placarding the city with announcements of the location of branch offices.
